"Sensible Shoes: A Story About the Spiritual Journey"

by Sharon Garlough Brown

Thursday, May 30th

7 pm-Fireside Room

Coffee/Tea provided-please bring snacks

Available at Chapters ($22).

Book Description: The book is a moving story of four strangers as they reluctantly arrive at a retreat center and find themselves drawn out of their separate stories of isolation and struggle and into a collective journey of spiritual practice, mutual support, and personal revelation. The Spiritual Disciplines they learn are included in the book.

UPDATE FROM HAITI ARISE

Hi everyone;

We are back in Haiti as of a week ago. The country is quiet for now. The demonstrations that shut down the country did an enormous amount of economic damage. Most of the non-government organizations from North America and other places have not yet returned and likely won't until the fall. Inflation has skyrocketed because of the lack of resources. The Haitians we talk to understand that the demonstrations did a lot of financial damage. The leaders of the movement seem hesitant to try again.

We have three small teams of people coming during the month of May, so we are looking forward to having a good month before we end this season.

Our church friends were very, very happy to see us back and are anxiously waiting for teams to come. They have been longing for a sense of stability. It is good to be back for us and them.

Here are some things for you to pray about:

*Voodoo gets very aggressive at Easter time. Pray against the enemy and for safety.

*Wade is preaching on April 28th on the Cross and we will put a cross up in the church at that time.

*That God would establish Godly leaders in Haiti.

*Honorat family

*Safety for the construction workers. We are still building the birthing centre and the autobody shop.

*Finances for Haiti ARISE -- The implications of having teams cancel due to travel restrictions is deeply felt.

Thank you for your prayers and support!
