Donations to NAIM are given with the understanding that they are under NAIM's discretion for use. This is in compliance with government regulations. NAIM intends to honor gift designations, unless it seems evident that it is practically unwise to do so. In these cases, funds will be used for similar projects. No goods or services were exchanged for your tax deductible gift. North America Indigenous Ministries is a charter member of the ECFA, and affiliate member of the CCCC.

NAIM is in compliance with charitable registration laws in the U.S. The following states require NAIM to register its charitable solicitation information. If you reside in these states, you may contact the state offices for information. Registration does not imply endorsement from the states. NAIM is exempt from registration in all other states as a religious organization.

Mississippi residents: Secretary of State's Office—www.sos.ms.gov

Virginia residents: Office of Consumer Affairs—www.vdacs.virginia.gov

Washington residents: Secretary of State's Office—www.sos.wa.gov/charities

NAIM staff and the ministries they represent are solely funded through and fully accountable to North America Indigenous Ministries.
